SECTION 7. Any member wishing to resign shall tender his resignation in writing, which may be accepted, provided the amount of dues (if any) for which said member may be in arrears shall be then paid up.

SECTION 8. Whenever a member shall, in the opinion of a majority of the whole Board of Officers, be guilty of conduct unbecoming a member of the Society, it shall be the duty of the Board to request him to present his resignation within a time specified by the Board, and upon his failure to present such resignation within such time, such member may be expelled by vote of not less than two-thirds of all the members of the Board of Officers, at least one month's previous notice, in writing, of the time and place of a hearing having been given to the member, by mailing or delivering to him a copy of the charges.

ARTICLE III.

OF THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY.

SECTION 1. There shall be annually elected, on the second Monday of November, at a special meeting to be called for such purpose, from among the members of this Society, a President, a First, a Second, a Third, and a Fourth Vice-President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and an Assistant Secretary, who, with twelve Managers, whose election is hereinafter provided for, shall constitute the "Board of Officers." There shall be elected at the next meeting for the election of officers, twelve Managers, who shall divide themselves into four classes of equal numbers each. The first class shall serve for one year, the second class for two years, the third class for three years, and the fourth class for four years; and at each annual election, after that first next ensuing, there shall be elected three Managers for the term of four years, and such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies for the remainder of the terms of the Managers whose places they fill. No Manager shall be re-eligible until one year after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been last elected. There shall also be elected at each annual election of officers, two Chaplains, two Physicians, and two Consulting Physicians.

SECTION 2. The election shall be by ballot, and a plurality of votes shall constitute a choice.

SECTION 3. The officers so elected shall be installed and shall enter upon the duties of their respective offices at the Stated Meeting immediately preceding the anniversary meeting.

SECTION 4. The President shall, when he is present, preside at all meetings of the Society, preserve order, put the question, and declare the decision. He, in conjunction with one of the Vice-Presidents, may call special meetings of the Society when they shall judge proper, and he shall call them when required by the Board of Officers, or when requested in writing by any nine members, specifying in such request the object for which such meeting is desired. He shall appoint the time and place of all meetings, and shall sign orders on the Treasurer from the Board of Officers.

SECTION 5. The Vice-Presidents shall assist the President in presiding at the meetings. The duties specified in the preceding section shall, in case of the inability to act of the President, by reason of his absence or sickness, devolve on the First Vice-President; and in the absence or sickness of both, on the Second Vice-President; and so on, according to rank; only that, in regard to signing orders on the Treasurer, each shall have equal powers with the President.

SECTION 6. The Managers shall constitute a Board for dispensing the Society's bounty, agreeably to the regulations and restrictions prescribed in this Constitution, or by the laws and resolves of this Society; and for this purpose, they shall meet at least once a month in Summer, and twice a month in Winter, and five shall be necessary to form a quorum. At their meetings only they shall decide on the application of claimants, and, if a majority of those present shall consent to grant relief, they shall recommend them, in writing, to the President and Vice-Presidents, either of whom is authorized to draw on the Treasurer for the sum specified in the recommendation of the Managers; provided that no more than twelve dollars be given to any one person in one year, except as provided in Article VI., Section 1, of this Constitution, or unless otherwise determined at a meeting of the Society; and provided, also, that the whole sum thus dispensed by the Managers and by the Society in one year, do not exceed the revenue of the Society for that year arising from the interest on the Permanent Fund (hereafter mentioned) and from the annual dues. The Managers shall likewise recommend to the attention of the Chaplains and Physicians such persons as they suppose might be benefited by their assistance.

SECTION 7. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the money and other property of the Society. He shall keep regular accounts of all receipts and disbursements, in suitable books provided for that purpose, which shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of the members. He shall keep an account of the fees and dues that accrue, and shall appoint a proper and discreet person to collect the same, and shall allow such person a reasonable compensation therefor. He shall, at least once in every three months, report to the Board of Officers the names of the members whose dues remain unpaid, and the amount they respectively owe, specifying those whose dues have been in arrear more than a year. He shall preserve vouchers for all disbursements. He shall enter on his books each sum paid by him in consequence of the recommendation of the Board of Managers, the name of the President or Vice-President who signed the order, and the name of the person to whom the money was paid. He shall, at each Stated Meeting, present an abstract of his accounts, showing the sum received and expended since the last Stated Meeting of the Society; and likewise the whole amount received and expended since the previous anniversary festival, specifying the amount of the Permanent Fund, and amount of cash on hand, and what may become due before the next meeting of the Society, that they may, if they think proper, take order for the disposition thereof.

SECTION 8. The Secretary shall have the custody of all the records and journals of the Society and shall make a regular entry of all the proceedings at each meeting. He shall keep a roll of the members. He shall give notice through the post office or letter-delivery companies of all meetings, whether stated or special. He shall, under the direction of the Board of Officers, erase from the list of members the names of all such persons as shall, by the terms of the Constitution, have forfeited their title to membership, making a report thereof at the next meeting of the Society.

SECTION 9. In the absence of the Secretary, the duties specified by the last preceding section shall devolve on the Assistant Secretary, whose duty it shall be to assist the Secretary when present.

SECTION 10. The Chaplains shall perform the religious duties at the meetings of the Society, and shall by their counsel and advice promote harmony and good-will among the members. They shall also visit such sick and distressed persons as may be recommended to their attention by the Managers.

SECTION 11. The Physicians shall give advice and assistance to such sick or maimed person as may be committed to their care by the Managers.

SECTION 12. In case of the death, resignation or removal of any of the officers before the end of the year or term for which they were elected, the Society may, at any subsequent meeting, choose others in their room, in the mode prescribed in Section 2 of this article, to serve for the remainder of the term for which such officers were elected.

SECTION 13. The Board of Officers shall meet regularly on the Monday preceding each Stated Meeting. Special meetings may be called by the Secretary, under the direction of the President, or of the Vice-President acting in his stead, or of any three members of the Board of Officers. In addition to the duties conferred upon the Board by this Constitution, they shall likewise execute all such business as may from time to time be committed to them by any law or resolve of the Society; and they shall report their proceedings at every Stated Meeting of the Society. The presence of at least seven members shall be necessary for the transaction of business. They may, in their discretion, appoint a Sergeant-at-Arms, with such powers, and subject to such duties, as they may deem proper; and may allow him such compensation as they shall think reasonable.

ARTICLE IV.

OF COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. The Committee of Finance shall consist of the President, the Vice-Presidents, and Treasurer; the President shall be Chairman of the Committee. They shall have the management of the Permanent Fund, and shall direct its investment. All funds and money belonging to the Society shall stand in the name of "The Saint Nicholas Society of the City of New York." The Committee shall, when moneys are to be disbursed from the Permanent Fund, or any amount transferred therefrom by resolution of the Society, give an order, in writing, to the Treasurer, for such disbursement or transfer. They shall have power to sell out stocks or other securities belonging to the Society, and to reinvest the same. They shall report their proceedings at each Stated Meeting.

SECTION 2. There shall be appointed annually, at the meeting when the officers of the Society are elected, a Committee of Accounts, consisting of five members, not being officers, whose duty it shall be to examine the books and accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer, and to examine the proceedings of the Committee of Finance and of the Managers, and to report thereon to the Society at its next meeting.

SECTION 3. There shall be appointed annually, at the meeting when the officers of the Society are elected, a Committee of Installment, consisting of two members, who shall, on the anniversary festival, present and install the officers elected for the ensuing year.

SECTION 4. There shall be elected by the Society (by ballot), at the next meeting when the officers are elected, a Committee of Six as Stewards of the Society, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the general detail of the anniversary celebration, as shall be prescribed by the By-Laws, or by a resolution of the Society, who shall divide themselves into three classes of equal numbers each. The first class shall serve for one year, the second class for two years, and the third class for three years; and at each annual election thereafter there shall be elected two members of said Committee for the term of three years, and such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies for the remainder of the terms of the members whose places they fill.

No member elected to this Committee shall be re-eligible until one year after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been last elected.

SECTION 5. All Committees (special as well as standing) whose appointment is not otherwise directed by the Constitution or By-Laws, or a resolution of the Society, shall be nominated by the presiding officer and confirmed by the Society.

ARTICLE V.

OF THE FUNDS.

SECTION 1. All sums received as initiation fees, donations, bequests, etc., and all sums paid by life members, shall be invested under the direction of the Committee of Finance as a Permanent Fund, to be loaned out at interest, or invested in stocks, or public funds. And if at any time the interest arising from the Permanent Fund, together with the amount received from the annual dues, be more than the exigencies of the poor and the current expenses of the Society require, the surplus shall be carried to the Permanent Fund. In like manner, if the Stewards shall at any time receive more money than is required for the expenses of the anniversary festival, the surplus shall be paid over to the Treasurer, and be carried to the Permanent Fund.

SECTION 2. No money shall be transferred from the Permanent Fund except by a resolution of the Society at a Stated Meeting, at which there shall be present at least one hundred members, three-fourths of whom shall vote in favor of such resolution.

SECTION 3. All such sums as arise from the annual dues of members, and from the interest or income of the Permanent Fund, shall constitute a fund, to be called the Charity and Expense Fund, from which all the debts of the Society shall be paid and the charities disbursed. But if the said fund shall exceed the amount of expenses and of charities distributed, the surplus shall be annually carried to the Permanent Fund, according to the provisions of Section 1 of this article of the Constitution.

ARTICLE VI.

OF THE PERSONS TO WHOM CHARITABLE DONATIONS MAY BE MADE.

SECTION 1. The widow and children of a deceased member shall (if so determined by the Board of Managers) be entitled for five successive years to an annuity from the funds of the Society, to the full amount of the moneys which the deceased member shall have actually paid into the Treasury, payable in such manner, and to such persons, as the said Board of Managers shall direct; provided, however, that said annuity shall in no case be paid to a widow of a member after she shall have married again, nor to children after they shall have attained the age of fourteen years.

The ribbon shall be orange, ribbed and watered, 1⅜ inches in width and 1 inch in displayed length, suspended from a gold or silver gilt bar ¼ inch in depth and $1\frac{7}{16}$ inches in breadth, bearing the words "St. Nicholas" in block letters, in relief.

Address

OF THE

RT. REV. HENRY C. POTTER, D.D., D.C.L., BISHOP OF NEW YORK, CHAPLAIN OF THIS SOCIETY,

PRESENTED WITH THE CUP.

To Her Gracious Majesty Wilhelmina,
Queen of the Netherlands.

MADAME:

The undersigned, for themselves and their associates, citizens of the United States and members of the Society of St. Nicholas, approach your Majesty with their respectful homage and congratulations in view of your recent marriage. Of another hemisphere and nation than your own, they are still in a very real sense, if they may venture to say so, of kin to both. It is their proud claim that they are of Dutch ancestors; that their forefathers who laid the foundations of this great metropolis, and planted the first Christian civilization on this island, were men of Holland; and that the courage, patience, large foresight, and manly virtues of those rare men were bred in that land which to-day enjoys the happy privilege of your benignant rule.

Believe them, Madame, when they assure you that they have never ceased to love and revere it. Out of the loins of their Dutch ancestry, out of the sturdy faith and strong convictions of their Holland forefathers, have sprung the most potent of those great ideas which, under God, have made the American Republic what it is. The freedom of the individual conscience; the sovereignty of God-given convictions; the open Bible; the right to worship God and to serve man, without let or hindrance, as duty showed the way; the priceless value of individual and civic integrity and of blameless living, commercial uprightness, personal honor, and family purity; these are the things which, long ago, Holland taught her children to prize and contend for; and for which, to-day, please God, her children's children will not cease to contend.

Can they then be indifferent to the dear mother-land from which, long ago, their fathers' fathers came? Can they be insensible to the rare personal qualities of that gracious sovereign who, to-day, rules over it, and whose life and character are already a bright and engaging example to womanhood all round the world? Can any such event as that which has united her to an honored and accomplished Consort be without deep interest to them?

It is such emotions, your Gracious Majesty, that prompt these words, and the gift that accompanies them. They who send them desire to express to your Majesty the grateful appreciation with which they have received, from your greatly valued and highly respected representative here, the assurance that your Majesty will consent to accept their gift. In design and detail it will substantially tell its own story; and the key to its details, which goes with this letter, will inform your Majesty as to the history of the men whose portraits are there recalled. Hollanders and heroes, statesmen and seamen, they laid foundations here; and their children and their children's children rise up and call them blessed.

To you, most gracious lady, these children's children send this modest token of their homage and high hopes.

They beseech you to accept it as charged and filled with all best wishes for your Majesty's person, Consort and people. "Long live Queen Wilhelmina," they call across the seas. God guard her, her throne, her people, and the great ideas for which they stand, pray

Your Majesty's most respectful and humble servants,

FREDERIC DE PEYSTER FOSTER,
President,

RT. REV. HENRY C. POTTER, D.D., D.C.L.,
Chaplain,

WM. PIERSON HAMILTON,
Treasurer of Cup Committee.

DESCRIPTION OF THE CUP.

This cup is the visible expression of the respectful admiration of the Saint Nicholas Society of New York for one who combines so happily the dignity and majesty of the Queen with the beauty and purity and youthful charm of the woman that all good and gallant men at all times, and especially upon the occasion of her happy marriage, are glad to do her homage.

The pedestal upon which the cup rests is made of wood formerly a part of the Old Middle Dutch Church which stood in Nassau Street in the City of New York. The corner stone of the church was laid in 1727. The last prayer to Almighty God which rose from within its hallowed walls was spoken in the year of our Lord 1844, by the Reverend Doctor Thomas De Witt in the ancestral tongue of the Netherlands. The pedestal is the contribution to our gift of Mr. Frederic W. Whitehouse, the artist who designed the cup.

About the base of the cup are Saint Nicholas, Hendrick Hudson, Peter Stuyvesant and Admiral Cornelis Evertsen.

The name of Hendrick Hudson is doubtless known to her Majesty. It is that of the daring navigator who, in 1609, while in the employment of the Dutch East India Company, sailed from Amsterdam in his little ship "Half Moon," and, after enduring many hardships, cast his anchor in September of that year "in a great lake of water," now known as the harbor of New York. Thence proceeding, he steered his course by the lovely island of Manhattan, soon to be the site of New Amsterdam, explored to its head waters the noble river which now is known by his name, and gained for the people of the Netherlands the splendid possessions which their descendants now so largely enjoy.

On October 4th, 1609, the weather being fair and the wind favorable, the "Half Moon" sailed out from between the headlands of the Narrows, the first vessel to leave the port of New York direct for Europe, where she arrived in safety. In 1611, Hendrick Hudson, sailing once more to the westward, brought to a tragic end, amid the ice-floes of Hudson's Bay, a life of heroic adventure.

Peter Stuyvesant was the most famous of the Dutch governors of New Amsterdam. Of large mental capacity, firm and forceful, soldier, administrator, patriot, his personality, after nearly three hundred years, stands out as clear and distinct amid the lesser colonial personages of his time as though he had walked the world but yesterday. A detailed biography of the doughty old governor has not been here attempted, for we venture very respectfully to believe that his services to his country, in peace and in war, at home, in the West Indies (where he lost his leg in battle with the Portuguese) and in the New Netherlands, are as familiar to Her Majesty at The Hague as to us, her obedient servants, in Manhattan. Many of his lineal descendants are members of our Society to-day.

Admiral Cornelis Evertsen was the son and worthy successor of the great admiral of that name, the associate and peer of Tromp and de Ruyter. In 1672, the Netherlands and England being then at war, as her Majesty will recall, the younger admiral set sail from his native shores in command of a squadron bound for the West Indies to protect the interests of his country, and to inflict all legitimate damage possible upon the enemy. Having wintered in the tropics, in the following Spring he cruised northward along the coast of America, and in July, 1673, the admiral and his fleet, and the prizes he had picked up by the way, passed in at Sandy Hook, and let go their anchors just below the Narrows, as Hendrick Hudson had done before him. Immediately an embassage came in boats from our city, then in control of the English, asking the admiral's intentions, and seeking to make terms with him. To them the admiral replied that the city belonged to his countrymen, that they had come for their own, and their own they would have. Thereupon sails were set, anchors were weighed, the admiral and his fleet stood up the bay, fired broadsides into the fort, sent ashore a landing party, and took the place. Thus our city, which in 1664 had been taken by the English in time of peace, was retaken by the gallant admiral in time of war. The flag of the Netherlands which he hoisted was never lowered by hostile hands. It flew above the town until, with the coming of a treaty of peace and the relinquishment by each nation to the other of its conquests during the war, our city ceased to be New Amsterdam, and became finally and for ever New York.

The remaining figure is Saint Nicholas, the patron saint of Holland, of this city and of our Society, a fitting emblem, we believe, of the kindness and merry-heartedness, of the toleration of the opinions and feelings of others, of the simple and manly virtues which characterize the good people of Holland, and also, we trust, the good people of Manhattan.

It is our hope that the eyes of the Queen may sometimes rest with pleasure upon the little picture, copied from an ancient print, of the primitive fort upon this island, and the Indians in their canoes, upon the historic "Half Moon" and upon the seals of New Amsterdam and of this Society with which it has been sought to adorn the cup, and upon the glorious and beautiful arms of the House of Orange, which in miniature surmount the whole, and that this cup may occasionally remind Her Gracious Majesty of those who, with the most profound respect, are her well-wishers beyond the seas.
